

Wednesday, December 15, 2004

Last modified Friday, June 11, 2004 1:22 PM EDT

Friday After Five moves to Canal Place tonight
Summer in the City shows round out Heritage Days

By submission to the Cumberland Times-News
Friday, June 11, 2004 1:22 PM EDT

George Lucas

CUMBERLAND - Charter Media's Summer in the City in Town Centre continues this weekend with free concerts Friday through Sunday.

Canal Place will be the location for Friday After Five and Saturdays Live! this weekend with Constitution Park continuing to host Concerts in the Park.

Friday After Five, tonight at Canal Place, is sponsored by M&T Bank and Downtown Cumberland Business Association. George Lucas and Allegheny will kick off the evening at 5 p.m.

Described as part George Strait and part Garth Brooks, Lucas, who has recorded in Nashville, will showcase his love for country music. From 7 to 9 p.m., Takoma Park, the area's newest dance and party band, will perform a unique selection of country, Top 40, and classic rock hits. The Pittsburgh Pirate Parrot will be on location from 6 to 8 p.m., giving out schedules, photographs, and prizes, so parents are urged to bring the children and experience the first Coney Island Hot Dog Shoot.

On Saturday after visiting Heritage Days, stop by Canal Place to enjoy the contemporary rock of Chip Burkey and Brian Wilson Project from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Shops at Canal Place.

Bringing the event-filled weekend to a close, Concerts in the Park presents Bop Goes the Weasels, a branch of the Cumberland Jazz Society that performs contemporary big band jazz, Sunday at Constitution Park amphitheater from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

The Summer in the City music series features over 70 free musical events and continues through Sept. 25. Summer in the City is a partnership between the Downtown Manager's Office which hosts Friday After Five and Farmer's Market concerts, Canal Place Authority, which presents Saturdays Live! at Canal Place, and the Allegheny Arts Council, which organizes Concerts in the Park.

A complete schedule of events is available from the Downtown Manager's Office, Canal Place Authority, the Allegheny Arts Council, Allegheny County Visitors' Center, and many locations throughout Downtown Cumberland or by visiting downtowncumberland.com or canalplace.org.

